

IRISH LINES AND FEMALE FINDS – EXHIBITOR CONNECT SCHEDULE

Wednesday, 22 September and Saturday, 25 September

Wednesday, 22 September, 2:00 – 3:30 a.m. (EDT)

All exhibitors will be available to chat and answer questions between these hours, unless otherwise indicated. Specific presentations and their times are noted.

Exhibitor	About the exhibitor	Presentations	Time (EDT)
Alberta Family Histories Society	Assisting family historians with roots from anywhere around the world. Programs and resources focus on Calgary and southern Alberta, Canada.	Migration from Ontario to the Prairies	2:00-2:15 2:45-3:00
Ancestry	Global leader in family history and consumer genomics, with more than 30 billion records.	Power your research using Ancestry DNA Viewing Your DNA Results DNA & Trees THRULINES – Are they true lines?	2:00-2:15 2:15-2:35 2:35-2:45 2:45-3:05
Archives of Ontario	Ontario, Canada provincial archives. Major resource for key documents for Ontario families.	What's new at the Archives?	2:00-2:20
Arnprior McNab Braeside Archives	Archives for Arnprior and area in Renfrew County, Ontario.
British Isles Family History Society of Greater Ottawa (BIFHSGO)	Canadian family history society with a focus on the British Isles.
City of Ottawa Archives	Custodians of civic government records of the City of Ottawa, as well as local, community records with historical value.

Exhibitor	About the exhibitor	Presentations	Time (EDT)
Clifton House, Belfast	Built in 1774 as Belfast's Poor House, now one of the most important genealogical archives in Belfast.	Mary Ann McCracken's Belfast and Clifton House	2:30-2:45
Family Ancestrees	Artistically Connecting You to Your Family History
Family History Federation	Federation of family history societies within the U.K. and worldwide.
Genealogical Society of Ireland	Ireland's most active genealogical society.
Genes and Genealogy	Global professional family history and genetic genealogy service combining DNA detective work with traditional research methodologies.
Library and Archives Canada	Canada's national library and archives preserves and provides access to Canada's documentary heritage.	British Isles Pages on the Library and Archives Canada website	2:00-2:30 *session will close at 2:30
MyHeritage	The leading global discovery platform for exploring family history, with billions of records and family tree profiles.	Utilizing MyHeritage Search Engine to Find Your Family The MyHeritage Photo World	2:30-2:45 3:00-3:15
Ontario Genealogical Society	Canada's largest member supported genealogical organization, located in Ontario, Canada.
Ottawa Branch, Ontario Genealogical Society	Ontario Genealogical Society Branch covering Carleton, Lanark, Renfrew, Prescott and Russell Counties.
Ottawa Public Library	Public library with a large genealogy and history collection covering the Ottawa Valley and area.
Québec Genealogical eSociety	Virtual genealogical society for family historians worldwide who are researching their ancestors in Quebec.
Scottish Indexes	Connect with your Scottish heritage with a wide variety of records, including criminal, health, property, and paternal records.	Tips and Tricks for Getting the Best out of www.scottishindexes.com	2:00 – 2:15
Ubbink Book & Paper Conservation	Museum-quality conservation, restoration, and preservation services.

Saturday, 25 September, 10:00 – 11:30 a.m. (EDT)

All exhibitors will be available to chat and answer questions between these hours, unless otherwise indicated. Specific presentations and their times are noted.

Exhibitor	About the exhibitor	Presentations	Time (EDT)
Ancestry	Global leader in family history and consumer genomics, with more than 30 billion records.	Intro to Irish Research on Ancestry Bridging the Gap: 1770-1870 19 th century: largest Irish collections	10:00-10:20 10:20-10:40 10:40-11:05
British Isles Family History Society of Greater Ottawa (BIFHSGO)	Canadian family history society with a focus on the British Isles.
Clifton House	Built in 1774 as Belfast's Poor House, now one of the most important genealogical archives in Belfast.
Cumberland Township Historical Society	Discovering, sharing, and preserving the history of Cumberland Township, Ontario, including Cumberland Village, Sarsfield, Navan, Bearbrook, Vars and Orléans.
Family Ancestrees	Artistically Connecting You to Your Family History
Family History Federation	Federation of family history societies within the U.K. and worldwide.
Genealogical Society of Ireland	Ireland's most active genealogical society.
MyHeritage	The leading global discovery platform for exploring family history, with billions of records and family tree profiles.	Integrating DNA & Family History Research at MyHeritage Maximizing MyHeritage Technologies for Family History Research	10:30-10:45 11:00-11:15
Ontario Genealogical Society	Canada's largest member supported genealogical organization, located in Ontario, Canada.
Ottawa Branch, Ontario Genealogical Society	Ontario Genealogical Society Branch covering Carleton, Lanark, Renfrew, Prescott and Russell Counties.

Exhibitor	About the exhibitor	Presentations	Time (EDT)
Ottawa Public Library	Public library with a large genealogy and history collection covering the Ottawa Valley and area.
Québec Genealogical eSociety	Virtual genealogical society for family historians worldwide who are researching their ancestors in Quebec.
Scottish Indexes	Connect with your Scottish heritage with a wide variety of records, including criminal, health, property, and paternal records.	Tips & Tricks for Getting the Best out of www.scottishindexes.com	10:00-10:15
Sher Leetooze	Author and family researcher, specializing in Ulster, Devon & Cornwall in England, and Bible Christians in Canada.
Ubbink Book & Paper Conservation	Museum-quality conservation, restoration, and preservation services.		